Berfargilla, Truepenny, and Vent Win. WASHINGTON, Oct. 23.-The smart people, the talent who should know better than to be caught by such chaff, got landed high and dry in the fourth race at St. Asaph to-day. The report was most earnestly circulated that Live Oak, a colt that outclassed his field by at least twenty pounds, was not fit and that he could not possibly win. The ring posted 4 to 5 at the opening of the betting, and gradually raised it until 8 to & could be had. The talent split up in halves, one half playing Setauket to win and the other plunging on Long Bridge. The race was a beart-breaker for the smart delegation, Live Oak going to the front at the drop of the flag and making an exhibition of his opponents There was a blank look of amazement on the faces of the know-it-alls, and prolonged whistles greeted the hoisting of the winner's number. Long Bridge was second and Setauket third. The talent to-night are telling each other how it

For the opening dash the bulk of the money went on Harrington, but the talent agreed, to a man, that Urania was the most dangerous com-petitor Donohue's speedy gelding would have to contend with. As a consequence Urania carried as much money for the place as Harrington did to win. There was a plunge on Moderoclo, Green B. Morris's handsome daughter of Sir Modred, and the odds against her were battered down a dozen points or so. Doggett figured for an advantage at the start with Urania, and was a couple of lengths ahead in the first few breaks. Starter Rowe told him that such tactics would not do, and a good send-off was finally secured. Urania had the speed of the party, and set a great pace. Harrington kept in second place until well into the stretch. when by dint of the hardest kind of riding Simms got him up to the leader. Ed Kearney also closed up strong. The finish was a good simms got him up to the leader. Ed Kearney also closed up strong. The finish was a good one, Harrington winning by only a neck, while Ed Kearney was beaten by Urania by only half a length for second money. Sufficient was interfered with on the upper turn. Moderocio showed a lot of speed, and will get a race or two during the meeting.

Nero, the odds-on favorite, was beaten by the 5tol chance, Shadow, in the second race. The victory, however, was a dear one, as Nero cut Shadow down three furlongs from home. Gold Dollar was the pacemaker for nearly seven furlongs, giving way to Shadow at the head of the homestretch. The talent had a glimmer of hope when Nerg got through on the rail, but Shadow was not to be caught, and she won without difficulty by a good open length. Gold Dollar was a fair third. Nero's plate cut a slice off Shadow's off hind leg, and the tendon was exposed by the slicing blow of the razor-like steel. She will hardly run again for some time. Had the blow landed squarely her course on the turf would have been at an end.

Bill Daly sat in the grand staud and told his friends that W. Woods was going to win the third race with Golden Gate. Bill knows when Woods's horses are good, and the price against Golden Gate was hammered down from 2 to 1 to 6 to 5. The cold drew the pole, but Amsterdam went away with the favorite, and carried him so fast that Simms was riding hard at the head of the stretch. Then Doggett brought Truepenny along, and in a drive beat the good thing to the wire by a neck. Amsterdam in a clinking good race and was only a neck away. Truepenny has been a good thing half a dozentimes this fall, but to-day was the first time he got the money.

fall, but to-day was the first time he got the money.

Derfargilla looked like "peaches and cream," to use a common expression of the talent to designate a sure winner, for the fifth race. The 20 to 1 chance, Prince John, went away like a rocket, and opened up such a gap that it looked for a while as though he would not be caught. In the drive through the stretch, however, Derfargilla closed on the four-year-old, and beat him cleverly by a neck and shoulders, in 1:15%, the fastest time of the meeting for six furlongs. Little Hilly was third in the colors of his new owner. Simms came nearly causing a bad accident at the first turn by pulling Little Hilly in toward the rail. He carried Derfargilla with him, and Restraint was crossed and stumbled to his knees. He recovered instantly and did not fall, but his chances of winning were ruined by the mishap. "Pittsburgh Phil" wanted to bet several thousand dollars on Derfargilla, but the bookmakers would not accept the money.

The last race for two-year-olds was a good

the money.

The last race for two-year-olds was a good thing for the 10 to 1 chance Vent. Forager and Samaritan were the favorites, but the former lost through the poor riding of Lendrum, and The Scalper carried Samaritan so wide that he had no chance to get up. The Scalper, a brother to Galliee, was third, Forager passing him in the run home. Summaries:

PAY OR PLAY AT THE START. The Talent Leads Off Well at Narragausett

PROVIDENCE, Oct. 23.—The threatening weather to-day had little or no effect on the attend-ance at Narragansett Park. In the first race Pay or Play, on the strength of his good race on Monday, was made a regular favorite. For the first time in over a week the talent started the day a winne,r Pay or Play landing the money under a drive by a length from Fugitive. Dr. Garnett was sent to the post a well-played first choice at even money in the one-mile race, Warnke's fast mare Annie Bishop being the second choice, at 8 to 5. Garner followed the tactics under which Dr. Garnett runs his best races by taking him to the front st flagfall. The Doctor won in a hard drive by a length in 1:4234, which is a quarter of a second faster than the track record. Annie Bishop closed up considerable ground in the stretch and got second place. She would have been closer up only for Blake's saddle slipping back several inches. Relict, a 15 to 1 shot, beat out both the favor-ites in the two-year-old race. The defeat of B. F. Cadigan's chestnut filly Hermanita and J. G. Folianbee's brown filly Lady Richmond was a severe blow to the public, the "bookies" greatly benefiting thereby. Wilmar was a slight favor-Ite over the Queen in the onemile solling race, but was unplaced at the end. The Queen won handily from Plenty, while Connors was a good third. Wilmar, although carrying eight pounds less than on Saturday, when he won, was not placed.

less than on Saturday, when he won, was not placed.

The malden race was easily won by Harry Keister, who, after many vain attempts, has at last quit the maiden ranks. H.-He Courcey Forbes's Queen of Pleasure was second and Abingdon third. The two-mile hurdle race was quite exciting. Marcus won by half a length from Rodinan, who only beat San Joaquin a length for the place. Chevy Chase fell, but neither horse nor jockey was injured.

J. Relser has sold Ferrier to H. H. Hunn; price private. This horse, who has a reputation for cowardice, has been in excellent form since his arrival here, and has won several races against the fastest horses at the track. He was originally the property of Jockey Willie Martin, who sold him last spring for $5.000.

J. B. Collins arrived here this morning. He states that he will sell all his string, including Strocco, Addle, Husirus, and Rama, at auction. The sale will take place on Thursday or Friday of this week. Frank Reagen, who bought Rama and Husirus some time ago conditionally, has returned them to Collins. Summaries:

SOLD UNDER THE HAMMER.

Brisk Bidding for Horses Bought, Matched, and Handled by Pierre Lorillard, Jr.

Eager buyers and brisk bidding marked the sale of high-class harness and saddle horses, the property of Pierre Lorillard, Jr., at the American Horse Exchange yesterday. The lot in-cluded thirty-two head, all of which were bought, matched, and handled by Mr. Lorillard himself at Tuxedo. Fourteen pairs were disposed of at substantial figures, five teams each bringing $500 or better. The assembled horse-men seemed particularly anxious to outbid each other for Quizz and Querry, a well-matched other for Quizz and Querry, a well-matched pair of gray geldings. H. F. McCreery finally secured the team for $575, the top price of the day. Get There and Go, a powerful pair of brown geldings, were also in lively demand. The price ran up to $550 before Nelson Brown silenced the other bidders. Several of the horses sold have been entered for the coming National Horse Show in Madison Square Garden. Three racing ponies, the property of Phil Daly, Jr., were more admired than desired, as $400 purchased the trio. Summary of the sale: PROPERTY OF PIERSE LORILLAND, JR., TUXEDO

SULKIES AT CHURCHILL DOWNS. A Half Holiday Declared at Lontaville on Account of the Harness Races LOUISVILLE, Oct. 23,-The patronage this afternoon at Churchill Downs was very encouraging to the promoters of the Louisville Fair and Driving Association. Many old turfmen of this city say that the crowd was the largest one that ever greeted the sulkies here. The Mayor declared a half holiday, the leading stores closed for the occasion, and there was quite a sprinkling of society people in the crowd of about 4,000. Everything went smoothly except the exhibition of Flying Jib, that uncertain pacer having one of his cranky fits which prevented McDowell from driving bim a fast mile with his running mate. The regular card began with a lively contest in the 2:13 trot, which Miss Nelson landed in clever the 2:13 trot, which Miss Nelson landed in clever fashion, Answer, Georgie Lee, and William Penn chasing her out in turn. It was not so easy to pick the winner in the 2:10 pace, as new aspirants bobbed up in each of the first three heats, the clip being fast enough to show that the track is better than it appears. Coleridge carried off the speed honors of the day by his mile in 2:09%, and all other heats excepting the fifth were inside of the 2:12 mark. At dark the race was still undecided.

Prince Edsall carried the money for the 2:29 trot, but he was an easy prey for Camiet, who won every heat away off, and placed his record very close to 2:20. To-morrow Directly, the champlon two-year-old pacer, will go against his mark of 2:07%. Summaries:

A bet, however, in a combination book is lost if any of the selected horses are scratched. BUFFAID, Oct. 23.—Arrangements have been completed for a match race between the great pacers, Robert J. and John R. Gentry, to take place at the Ruffalo Driving Park on Thursday, Nov. I. ROBINSON NAMED FOR CHAIRMAN

Of the Racing Board of the L. A. W.-Raymond May Succeed Luscomb. The decision of Chairman Raymond of the A. W. Racing Board to retire from office next February will leave the organization in a quandary as to who will succeed him. George D. Gideon, the Pennsylvania member of the Board, is regarded as the man best fitted for the office, but it is claimed that he will not accept the office. The League legislatora, in locking around for a man to take charge of the racing interests in the event of Gideon's refusal, claim that Henry W. Robinson of Massachusetts would fill the bill. Robinson has been a member of the National Board since last February, and his management of racing matters in Massachusetts has met with the approval of the League officials. Robinson has been Chairman of his State Racing Board, and is looked upon as a clear-headed legislator. D. Gideon, the Pennsylvania member of the Roard, and is looked upon as a clear-headed legislator.

The fact that Howard E. Raymond was asked to become a candidate for the presidency of the L. A. W. at the National League meet last August, has resulted in his name again being mentioned for the position. He was asked to run for President last year, but refused. Now, that he intends to remove to Chicago, the Western wheelmen, who have always held a grievance against the L. A. W. because they have never had a President of the organization, proclaim that Raymond will be their candidate for the office and assert that they are confident of electing him. A reporter of THE SUN saw Chairman Raymond, who refuses to state whether he would accept the nomination or not.

Accidents Prevent Johnson from Riding

BUFFALO, Oct. 23.- Hard luck had a firm grip on John Johnson, the noted bicycle rider, this afternoon, and after two attempts the straight-away record was still unshaken. At the first trial the front tire on his maunebaken. At the first trial the front tire on his machine gave out at the quarter nole, and at the second attempt a new tire on the front wheel again went to pletes. After repairs had been made it was too dark to rake another attempt.

The quadruplet went a fast mile, covering the distance in 1.11.40. The team consisted of Murphy, Louis Calinhan, Saunders, and A. D. Kennedy. Their time is just three offus of a second outside of the mile made by Reight and Schofield on a tandem in England, on a straight-away course, and is the only authentic account of a straight course record. This will unquestimably be beaten by a big margin before Johnson and his mates leave the city.

CLEVER EXHIBITIONS IN THE CITY CHESS CLUB'S TOURNAMENT.

Brilliant Game Between Hymen and Major Hanham, in Which the Latter is Wersted-Halpern in Easily Conquered by Steinitz-Albin and Pillsbury Win. The chess experts continued work at the Union Square Hotel yesterday, when the second round of the masters' tournament, under the auspices of the City Chees Club, was played. D. G. Baird, who had a bye on Saturday, made his debut, while Showalter had a day of rest. President Livingstone announced that Steinitz had consented to act as a sort of official critic and that he would annotate one or two games of each round. There was a large crowd present when the players took boards in the following order: Hymes vs. Hanham, Albin vs. Rocamora, Delmar vs. Baird, Steinitz vs. Halpern, Jasnogrodsky vs. Pillsbury. The games follow: Hymes had to contend with a Philidor Defence adopted by Hanham. The latter developed two pieces in his own peculiar way, while Hymes espied the weakness of his adversary's moves to a nicety. He proceeded with a very skilfully initiated attack, and, playing very cleverly throughout, Hanham had to resign after twenty-nine moves.

Albin relied upon a Zukertort opening against Rocamora. The latter held his own in the Rocamora. The latter held his own in the opening and middle game splendidly. In the end game, however, when he had the exchange to the good, he blundered and lost the game after forty-two moves.

Steinitz proved altogether too good for Halpern, who played a French Defence. Hack was, as the saying goes, smothered, had to give up a piece, and after thirty-three moves the game. Jasuogrodsky met Pilisbury in a Zukertort opening, which took a highly interesting turn. Both players excelled in aggressive and defensive tactice, but until the end game neither side had a chance to score. Finally Jasuogrodsky selected a variation which proved fatal, and after forly-two moves the Pole and to resign.

The game between Delimar and Baird had to be adjourned after fifty-six moves. The latter defended a fluy Lopez with 3. P-Q R 3, and got a very good game. However, Delmar, thanks to a blunder on the part of his adversary, won a pawn in the end game and should win. The games:

PENNSYLVANIA'S PLANS.

Will Play Harrard and Cornell at Home of She Meets Princeton at Treaton. PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 23,-Football was the subject of a long meeting of the Board of Di-rectors of the Athletic Association of the University of Pennsylvania at the University Club yesterday afternoon. A resolution was passed in favor of having the Harvard and Cornell games on the university grounds, provided the Prince-ton game was played at Trenton. Decision on that matter will be finally made next Sunday or Monday. The Pennsylvania Railroad has been rushing the work on the field at the fair grounds, Monday. The Pennsylvania Hallrong has been rushing the work on the field at the fair grounds, so that most of it has been stripped of sad and levelled. Manager Delabane made a visit yesterday to Trenton and reports most favorably upon the work.

If the decision is in favor of the Trenton fair grounds work will be immediately commenced at the university grounds to prepare for the Corneil and Harvard games. Plans have already been approved for stands having an aggregate seating capacity, with those now erected, of 25,000. These stands will extend over a part of the big triangle of ground to be used in the near future for dormitories. Harvard insists upon the scating of all who attend, so that no provision will be made around the field for standing room, and every one will be required to occupy a seat. In case the Trenton grounds fall to prove satisfactory, the Princeton, Harvard, and Cornell games will be played on the same grounds, pressumably those of the Merion Cricket Club at Haverford. The same stands will serve for all three contests. Present indications, however, point to Trenton's final selection as the playing place for the Princeton game.

The practice yesterday was secret. Guard Wharton's injured knee shows encouraging improvement of condition, and he may get around all right before the Princeton game. all right before the Princeton game

Cornell's President will See the Game. There was a large demand yesterday for seats for the Harvard-Cornell game at Manhattan Field on Sat the Harvard-Cornel game at Manhattan Field on Sat-urday. Dr. J. 6. Schurmanu, President of Cornell University, has engaged a private box, and will attend the game with several members of the Cornell facul-ity. Several innoticed students from these will also accompany the eleven. Manager Moore of the Har-vard eleven was in town restorday, and made arrange-ments for the accommodiation of 500 supporters of the crimson, who will come on from Boston Friday night. Mr. Moore said that, although Harvard's hospital list was a long one, Capt. Emmons would put the strong-est possible team in the field on Saturday.

This point, we time, the captain will not dispute. This was all we had intended to say, but since as all we would be a solution of the say of the same and a solution of the same and the would be say, but since as a short the game place of the cooking High asked us to a solution of the same and the same and the same and the same and the same as to be at the distance of a hundred yards utterly as to be at the distance of a hundred yards utterly undistinguishable from the color of the ground. NEARLY 7,000 ARTIFICIAL BIRDS Emerald's Tourney.

Another crowd of crack wing shots gathered at Dexter Park, on the Jamaica plank road, Long Island, yesterday at the second day's work at the traps in the Emerald Gun Club's big in-vitation tourney. Dr. G. V. Hudson, the hardworking Recording Secretary of the organiza-tion, is the authority for the statement that the tournament has exceeded all possible expectations, and that the event will remain an annual feature in local trap-shooting fixtures in the future.

Yesterday was known as "New Jersey Day," the dozen events that comprised the programme being dedicated to the trap-shooting organizations of the State of New Jersey. The programme consisted of sweepstake shoots at artificial birds, nearly 7,000 being broken dur-ing the day. Despite the length of the procramme, thanks to Hustler Tom Keller and President Reagen, the programme was concluded in good season while light yet remained.

To-day the big Empire City Handicap is to be decided, and as the Emerald Gun Club has added $100, and over forty-one forfeits were posted with Secretary Hudson last night, nearly $1,000 will be in the pot to be divided among some of the best trap shooters who ever handled a gun. Among the entries to-day are Mrs. Lindsiy, "Wanda;" ex-Champion Capt, John L. Brewer, Capt, Morey, Capt, Morcroft, President Reagan, Thomas H. Keller, Dr. G. V. Hudson, and nearly forty of the best-known trap shooters in this country. The shoot will be at twenty-five live birds per man from five ground traps, eighty yards boundary. Yesterday's scores foilow:
